COLONIAL GRACE CHURCH, YORKTOWN, VA.

POST CARD

GRACE EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Yorktown, Va.

This church was built of native marl about 1697. During the Siege of 1781 the church was used as a powder magazine by the British. The church was partly burned in the great fire of 1814 and was rebuilt in 1825. During the War Between the States, it served as a hospital for the Union Army. Among the graves in the churchyard are those of members of the Nelson family, prominent in the history of the Virginia Colony. The church was restored in 1926.

Published for J. S. de Neufville
by The Collotype Co., Elizabeth, N.J. and N.Y.

This Side for Correspondence

This Side for Address